Safeguards Health of The Children

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, is a great menace to health. Cathartic or purgative remedies should never be given to children as the violence of their action tends to upset the entire digestive system. A mild laxative is far preferable, and the combination of simple laxative herbs with peppin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended. This preparation contains no opium, narcotic, or habit-forming drug of any description, is mild and gentle in its action, and brings relief in an easy, natural manner. Its pleasant taste appeals to children and they take it readily. Thousands of mothers have testified to the merit of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and in countless homes it is the standard family remedy. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., nola.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Selwyn & Co. Offer Good Farcees in "Fair and Warmer."

Selwyn & Co. present the Avery Hopwood farce hit of a generation, "Fair and Warmer," at the Barre opera house on Thursday, Oct. 11.

"Fair and Warmer" comes here with one of the strongest casts of farceurs ever assembled for a road tour of a New York success. The production, offered by Selwyn & Co. is an exact replica of that in which the farce was offered during its long engagement in New York and Chicago.

Avery Hopwood's title to consideration as America's best writer of farce, which was auspiciously begun with "Seven Days" and "Nobody's Widow," was firmly established for once and all by "Fair and Warmer." Selwyn & Co. with such remarkable success to their credit as "Within the Law" and "Twin Beds" have fairly excelled themselves as producers of plays the public wants, with "Fair and Warmer."

"Fair and Warmer" is a rare treat for theatregoers wherever it may be seen and as often as it may be seen in any place.—adv.

"The Other Man's Wife."

"Should a woman's life and conduct be judged by a distinctly different code of ethics from a man's? Should not a woman have her chance for happiness the same as a man without being judged and condemned by some act of indiscretion in her past that in a man would simply be winked at? Upon this 'motto' is woven the story of 'The Other Man's Wife,' the play by Victor E. Lambert, which comes to the opera house
